Guilford (Nick Castro)

Capo 2

D   A   Bm   Em   A

D   A   Bm   Em   A
In the morn, you will rise up where the sun and the horizon say good night
D   A   Bm   Em   A
Where the air is twice as warm as morning sands, that you wake upon
D   A   Bm   Em   A
Your eyes, they shone like diamonds that I can never afford
D   A   Bm   Em   A
And your mind works in mysterious ways that I will never understand

D   G   A
Well you were the finest woman that I knew
Bm   Em   A
Often my thoughts drift back towards you
D   G   A
Now I'm on my way towards Guilford
Bm   Em   A
Leaving the city life that I knew

D   A   Bm   Em   A
I recall the view from your rooftop, city streets, like a maddening storm
D   A   Bm   Em   A
Lovers rode by horse and Carriage, like days of old, when a rose bore no thorn
D   A   Bm   Em   A
I'll miss the day, when you said to me « travel east », your heart follows free
D   A   Bm   Em   A
When I return back to the city, your door may bare another's name

D   G   A
Yes you were the finest woman that I knew
Bm   Em   A
Often my thoughts drift back towards you
D   G   A
Now I'm on my way towards Guilford
Bm   Em   A
Leaving the city life that I knew

D   G   A
Yeah I'm on my way towards Guilford
Bm   Em   A
Leaving the city life that I knew

D   G   A
Yeah I'm on my way towards Guilford
Bm   Em   A
Leaving the city life that I knew

D   G   Bm   A
D   G   Bm   A
