

No milk today (Herman's Hermits)

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, my love is gone away. The bottle stands forlorn, a symbol of the dawn.
Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, it seems a common sight, but people passing by don't know the reason why.

A G D E A
How could they know just what this message means, the end of all my hopes, the end of all my dreams.
A G D E A
How could they know, a palace there had been, behind the door where my love reigned as queen.

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, it wasn't always so, the company was gay, we turned night into day.

A E D E
But all that's left is a place dark and lonely.
A E D
A terraced house in a mean street back of town.
A E D E
Becomes a shrine when I think of you only
D E
Just two up two down.

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, it wasn't always so, the company was gay, we turned night into day.
Am C E Am E Am
As music played the faster did we dance, we felt it both at once, the start of our romance.

A G D E A
How could they know just what this message means, the end of all my hopes, the end of all my dreams.
A G D E A
How could they know, a palace there had been, behind the door where my love reigned as queen.

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, my love is gone away. The bottle stands forlorn, a symbol of the dawn.

A E D E
But all that's left is a place dark and lonely.
A E D
A terraced house in a mean street back of town.
A E D E
Becomes a shrine when I think of you only
D E
Just two up two down.

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, my love is gone away. The bottle stands forlorn, a symbol of the dawn.
Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, it seems a common sight, but people passing by don't know the reason why.

A G D E A
How could they know just what this message means, the end of all my hopes, the end of all my dreams.
A G D E A
How could they know, a palace there had been, behind the door where my love reigned as queen.

Am C E Am E Am
No milk today, it wasn't always so, the company was gay, we turned night into day.

A E D E
But all that's left is a place dark and lonely.
A E D
A terraced house in a mean street back of town.
A E D E
But all that's left is a place dark and lonely.
A E D
A terraced house in a mean street back of town...