

Fly me to the North (Jade)

E Dsus2 A

A A7 A D Dsus2 D
Fly me to the North to where the gentle lilacs never bloom
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where their fragrance never once again will enter my room
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where the whiteness is the only thing that I can see
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
I just don't want to have to feel your sadness all around me

E Dsus2 A

A A7 A D Dsus2 D
Fly me to where the branches of the tall oak tree can't shield me
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where the butterfly will never again fly past me
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where the moonbeams cannot light the sadness of your face
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where the cold will numb my heart so that you cannot hurt me

E Dsus2 A

A D E A Dsus2
But on the way I will stop by the bluest of all seas
D E A
I will find me a sea smooth shell
A D E A Dsus2
And I will listen to the softness as I put it to my ear
D E A
To my ear, to my ear

BRIDGE

E Dsus2 A A A7 A D Dsus2 D

A A7 A D Dsus2 D
Fly me to the North to where the gentle lilacs never bloom
Fly me to where the branches of the tall oak tree can't shield me
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where their fragrance never once again will enter my room
To where the butterfly will never again fly past me
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
To where the whiteness is the only thing that I can see
To where the moonbeams cannot light the sadness of your face
A A7 A D Dsus2 D
I just don't want to have to feel your sadness all around me
To where the cold will numb my heart so that you cannot hurt me

E Dsus2 A