Maybe you’re right (Cat Stevens)

G  Eb  D  Em  C  G  F  C  G

G                                C  D                      Em
Now maybe you're right and maybe you're wrong

G                                C  G                      C  F
But I ain't gonna argue with you no more, I've done it for too long.

G                                C  D                      Em
It was getting so good why then, where did it go?

G                                C  D                      C  F
I can't think about it no more tell me if you know.

G                                C  D                      Em
You were loving me, I was loving you

G                                C  G
But now there aint nothing but regretting

C                                F  C
Nothing, nothing but regretting everything we do.

G  Eb  D  Em  C  G  F  C  G

G                                C  D                      Em
I put up with your lies like you put up with mine,

G                                C  G                      C  F
But God knows we should have stopped somewhere, we could have taken the time,

G                                C  D                      Em
But time has turned, yes, some call it the end.

C                                G  C                      C  G
So tell me, tell me did you really love me like a friend?

C                                C  G                      C  G
You know you don't have to pretend,

C                                C  G                      C  G
It's all over now it'll never happen again, no no no, It'll never happen again,

C                                C  G                      C  G
it won't happen again Never, never, never, it'll never happen again

F                                C  G
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no...

G  Eb  D  Em  C  G  F  C  G

G                                C  D                      Em
So maybe you're right, and maybe you're wrong

G                                C  G                      C  F
But i ain't gonna argue with you no more, I've done it for too long.

G                                C  D                      Em
It was getting so good why then, where did it go?

G                                C  D                      C  F
I can't think about it no more tell me if you know.

G                                C  D                      Em
You were loving me, I was loving you

C                                C  G
But now there aint nothing but regretting

C                                F  C
Nothing, nothing but regretting everything we do.
